PRESENTING TO YOU

THE ARICKARA

1956 EDITION

YANKTON HIGH SCHOOL

YANKTON, SOUTH DAKOTA

Here she is, the princess of YHS, Princess Ree, the daughter of Struck-by-the-Ree, chief of all Yankton tribes.

Princess Ree, from papoose to squaw, has blazed many trails with the students of Yankton High, traveling with them to all school activities as the spirit of YHS. All though she could not be seen, she sat behind you at athletic events and helped you cheer the Bucks to victory. She has watched the students as they proudly received their awards on Awards Night and stood by as they enjoyed themselves at school dances. She has cried, as every year she has seen the latest graduating seniors don their caps and walk across the stage to receive their diplomas. The Princess has also watched the faculty as they gave their best to prepare these students for the life ahead and she has smiled proudly as she has seen the results of this faculty's four years of hard work.

As you thumb through the pages of this book and see the Princess brought from spirit to reality, we hope you will recall the spirit and fun you left in the old brick walls of YHS.

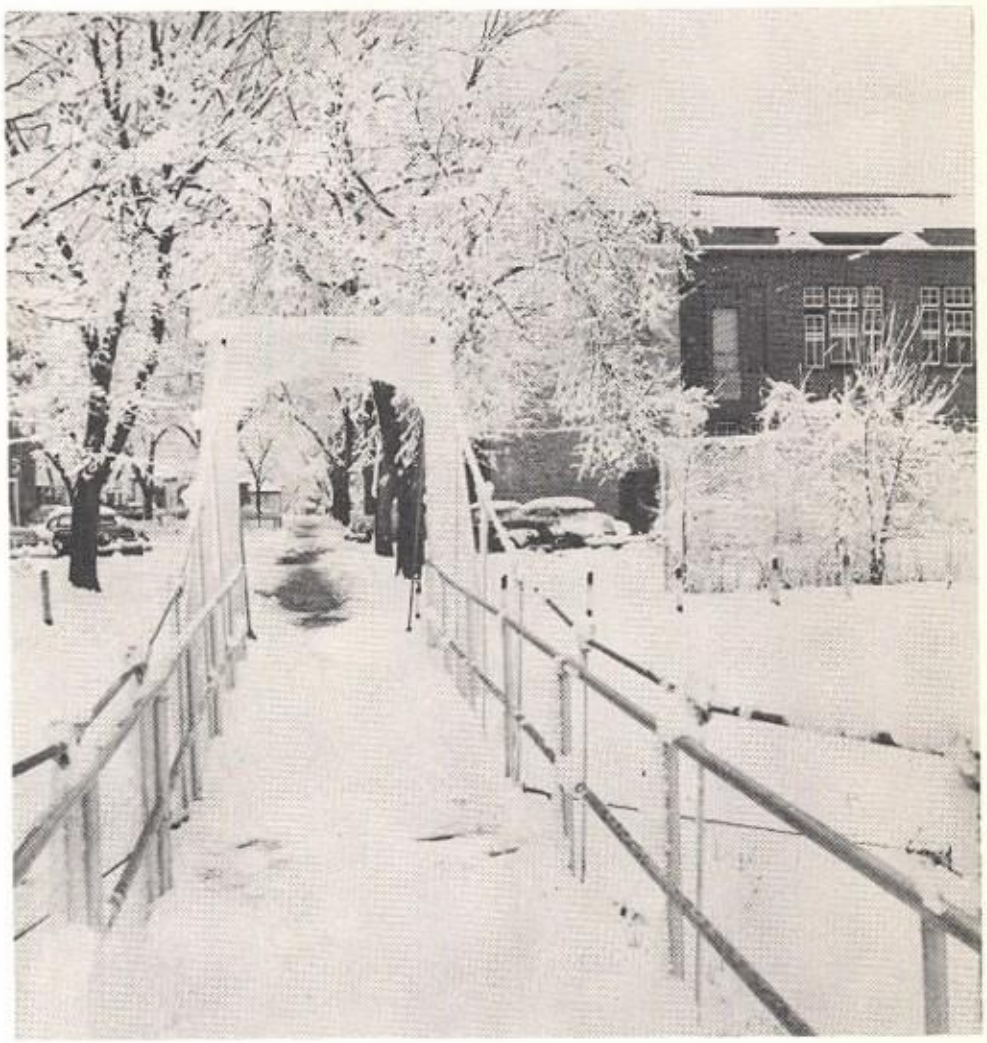
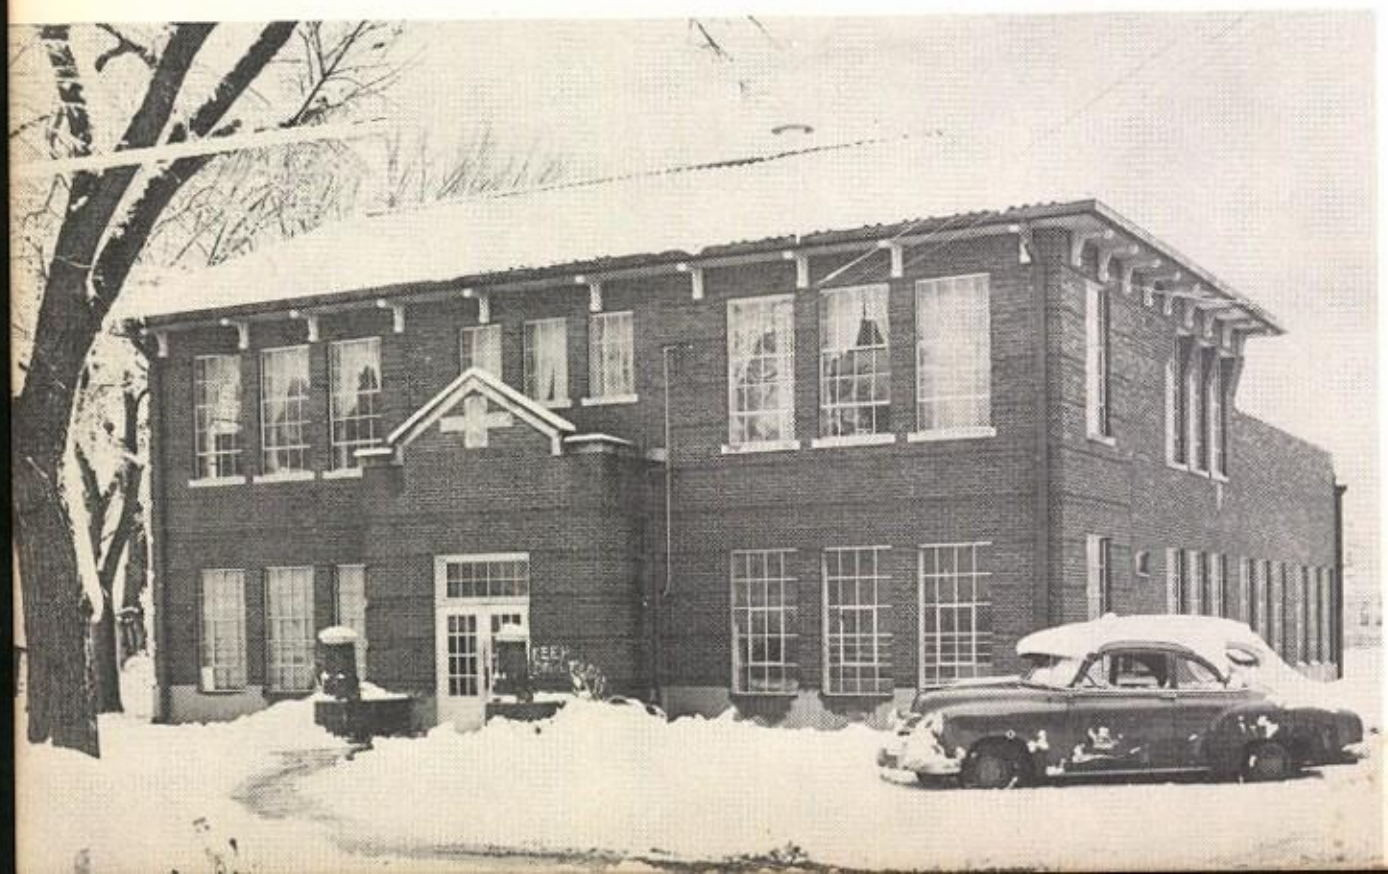
The Big Teepee
The home grounds for our big pow-wows, peaceful gatherings, and victory dances.



The Arickara Trail
Memories linger in the Big Teepee of Pow-wows held long ago. The ghosts of the past follow the Arickara Trail; and the wigwam bears the scars of many moons ago.



The Wigwam
Where our warriors learn to carve on wood and make beautiful objects as our fathers did long ago.

The chief over us all. He maps out the courses, untangles our troubles, and makes everything seem worthwhile. Again we would like to say "thanks".

Dr. R. F. Hubner

Superintendent Lester H. Baumann

Again Mr. Baumann, has added another successful year in being superintendent of the Yankton Public Schools. With his friendly smile and willing hand he has captured the hearts of us all. Through his efforts Yankton will have a new high school by 1957.

MAINTENANCE DEPARTMENT

The green lawns and well shoveled sidewalks, the building heat, and the neatly kept classrooms and corridors are all the result of labor by Yankton High's Maintenance Department. This group does a good job and deserves a hand from the students.

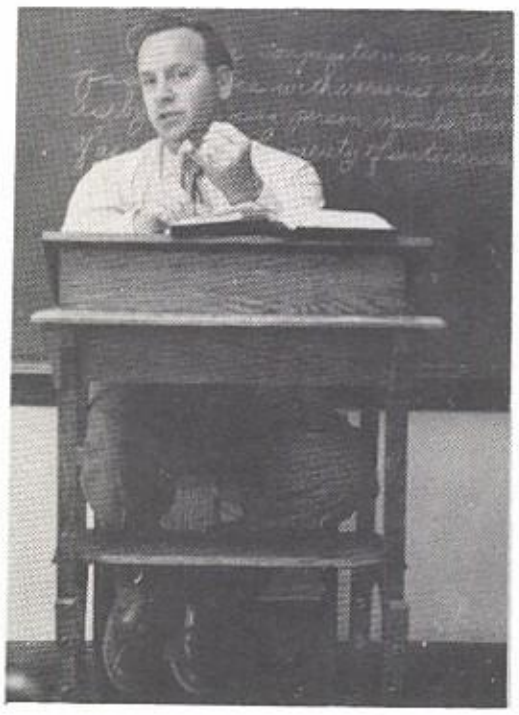
"Yes, I know, but every rule has its exceptions !"



FACULTY FEATURE

SENIORS

Four years ago an imbroglio of brash, arrogant students entered the halls of dear old YHS. Everyone asked the same question that first day: "Where is Room 18?" or "Where is Room 28?" We finally learned our way around and ended up the year with a wonderful picnic out at the State Lake. Our wonderful picnic ended up with a not-so-wonderful cloudburst.

The Big Wheels, our second year, were Dave Bride, John Boyles, Jack Coates, and Sally Nusinson. The first semester we gave the most terrific assembly ever shown in YHS. It will never be equalled. We introduced to the citizenry of YHS the Liberace! He was a great hit and our class will never forget him. We again ended up the year with a picnic at Van Osdel's farm. The weather was better that year.

Our Junior year started right off with hard work. After electing our Moguls: Tom Hanson, Jack Coates, Carol Lehman, Sandra Hansen, we sold magazines. Then we put on a tremendous play, "Stage Door". Then we planned and carried out our Mardi Gras and had one of the most successful ever presented in YHS. We worked even harder and gave the seniors a grand banquet and prom and, of course, ended up with a picnic.

Our Senior year was taken up with taking tests of all sorts. Of course we elected our Top Brass: John Boyles, Bob Stewart, Carol Lehman, and Larry Obr with the Chiefs Of Staff consisting of Miss Bang, Miss Burgi, Mr. Bauer, Mr. Schiller, and Mr. Thrall. This spring we presented the most different and most colossal, of all different and collossal, "Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners". Now the time is rapidly approaching. We are looking forward to stumbling across the stage and obtaining our "coveted sheepskins". Then it will be all over. You have seen the last of the Class of "56 but you will never cease to hear of them. (and from them.)

What a catastrophe!! Our County Commissioners in jail.

WOW!! Such a distinguished looking WAC.

Lollipops good, kids??

Five little seniors grown up.

Pose pretty, girls.

One Mitchell per class.

Junior Class Advisors

Seated left to right are Mr. Lindboe, Mr. Kempf, Miss Schroeder, Mr. Greeno, and Mr. Steinbach.

With three years behind them the Junior Class is looking forward to their senior year. During their junior year they were a busy group. At the beginning of the year they put on the Jr. Play with great success. Following was the magazine sales and the Mardi Gras. Topping their wonderful year came the Jr. Sr. Prom and Banquet.

"Hats off to you, Jrs., you did a swell job."

CLEO

LARRY

A festive autumn colored day was the background for the traditional YHS Arickara Pageant. The coronation revealed Larry Sampson and Cleo Lowe as Chief and Princess.

Nancy Weiger, Bill Van Epps, Carol Lehman, and Jack Coates were the Arickara attendants.

Principal Snowden presented the Key to YHS to Chief Sampson at the coronation in the YHS Auditorium.

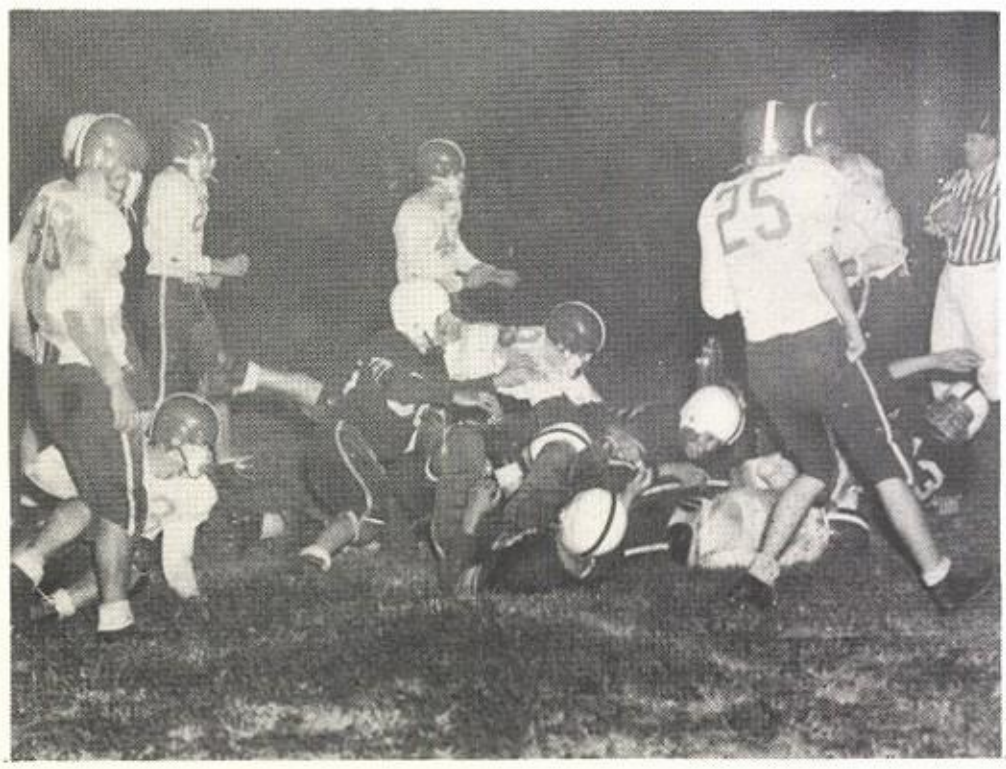
Arickara

As part of the program for the Arickara pageant Janet Rulon twirled her baton. "We enjoyed it very much, Janet. By the way what are you gazing at?"

A blazing fire set the mood for the Arickara bonfire where all the students whooped their war chants.



This is only one Buck skirmish out of many during the homecoming game. The Bucks beat the Madison Bulldogs 20-7. "Good going fellows!"

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

September	9	South Sioux City	20- 0
September	16	Vermillion	12-13
September	23	Mitchell	7-14
September	30	Watertown	13- 7
October	7	Madison	20- 7
October	14	Huron	12- 8
October	21	Aberdeen	7-21
October	27	Brookings	33-12
November	4	Norfolk	7- 0

Although the Bucks were defeated three times this year, it was still a good season for them. The Bucks saw one of the toughest years in the conference. Having only two losses in the E. S. D. conference, put them in second place. The Buck losses in the E. S. D. conference were to Mitchell and Aberdeen with scores of 14 - 7 and 21 - 7 respectively. In the last three years the Bucks have won 25 games and lost only 3, which is a very good average. The first loss of the season was to Vermillion, a 13 - 12 thriller. Although it was not a conference loss, it really hurt. It was the game which broke Yankton's 20 game winning streak. In total points scored, the Bucks scored 109 points while their opponents scored only 81, so you see it wasn't the playing that hurt us, it was the bad breaks. Maybe next year the Bucks will start another winning streak.

SCHEDULE

The 1955-56 basketball season got underway with the Bucks taking the opener by a score of 45-39 over Sioux City Central. As the season progressed, the Bucks showed much improvement. Yankton basketball team was one of the tallest Yankton has had in quite a few years. The average height for the team was 6 feet 1 inch, the tallest being about 6 feet 4 inches and the shortest being 5 feet 8 inches. When it came time for sectional tournament held at Yankton with Yankton, Gregory, Parkston, and Mitchell competing, Yankton and Parkston won the first round with Yankton beating Gregory by a score of 74 to 46. In the second round Mitchell beat Gregory and Parkston beat Yankton by a score of 48 to 40. Next year the Bucks will have four returning lettermen.

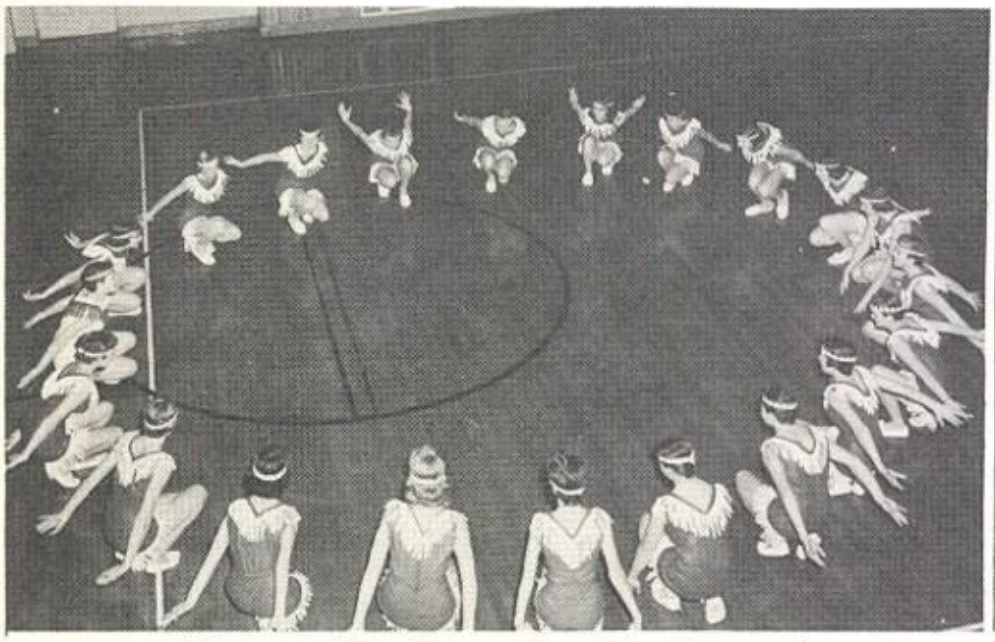
Yankton High School's marching maidens, the Drill Team, this year got away from their regular drills and added many novelty drills to their half time entertainment. It takes much skill and practice to execute these precision formations and the Team did an excellent job. Miss Wheeler kept the girls marching continually for parades and half-time shows.



Dressed in the garb of Indian princesses, the Drill Team performs one of their half-time novelty dances, the Hokey-Pokey.

THE WOKSAPE STAFF

Whether you call it the Wok-sa-pe or the Worksape, it all adds up to Yankton High's monthly newspaper. The Woksape staff this year strove to give the students an interesting and informative paper covering every form of student life from Student Government Day to humorous antics on bus trips. The staff, under the able direction of Mr. McCormack, this year entered many literary contests and came back with first place awards of all kinds. To run the school in a democratic way the students of YHS every year appoint a Student Council as the backbone of all school functions. Meeting with Principal Snowden weekly, the Council talks over school activities and prepares plans for coming events. Consisting of twenty homeroom presidents, the Council keeps the school running smoothly by exchanging student ideas with those of the faculty. This group does a good job and should be commended for their part in the administration of the school program.

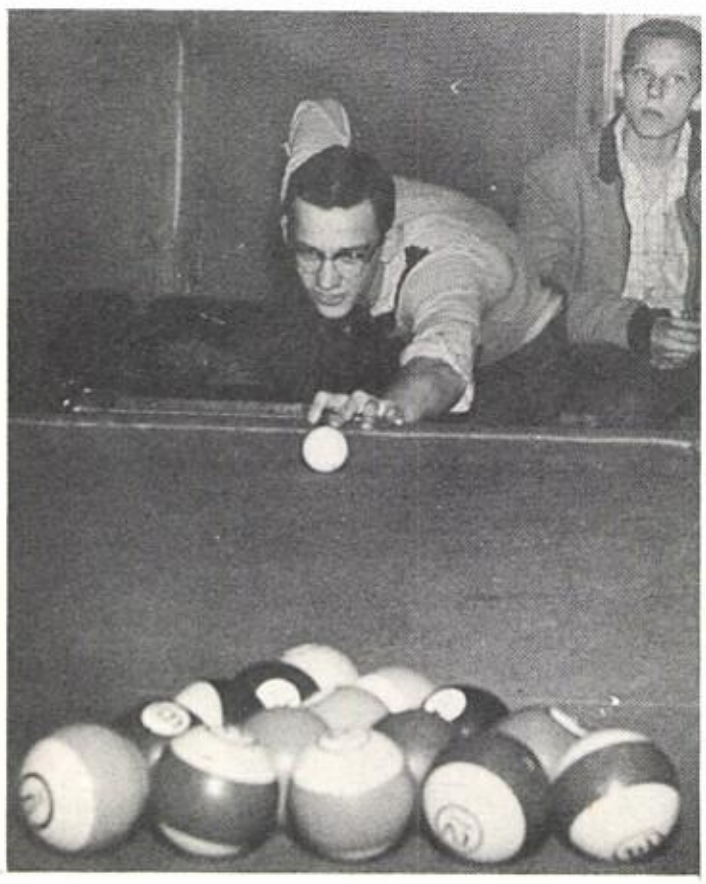
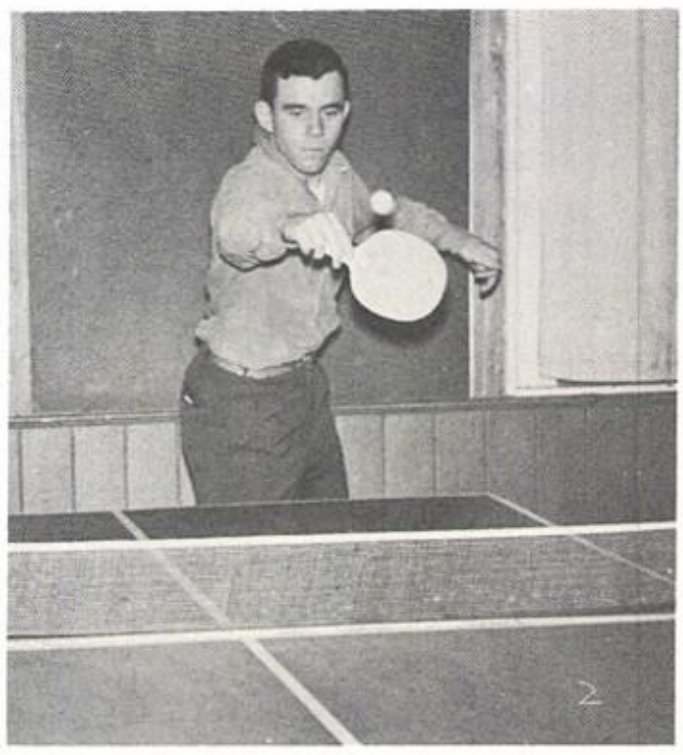
CANTEEN

Whether your hobby is ping-pong, pool, cards, dancing, eating, or just plain talking, the Canteen is the place to while away your hours. The Canteen is under the able guidance of "Mom" Mondini. She makes sure that the roof stays in place and the floors hold firm when the gang moves in. We all owe "Mom" a vote of thanks.

The Board of Directors, more commonly called The Canteen Council, consisted this season of: Meredith Auld; Virginia Tincher; Ken Herfkins; Sheryl Stofferson; Carolyn Brownson, Mount Marty; Joe Smith; "Mom" Mondini; Tom Brokaw; Lynn Shoemaker; John Hohn.





JUNIOR PLAY

"Seventeenth Summer," the story of a young high school girl who fell in love just before she was sent off to college, was presented by the Junior Class. A double cast gave the play variety for each performance and both groups did an excellent job.

SENIOR PLAY

Death, mystery, and suspence was the theme for the Senior Class play, "Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners." The play was built around a court scene with flashbacks into the past. The production required much work.

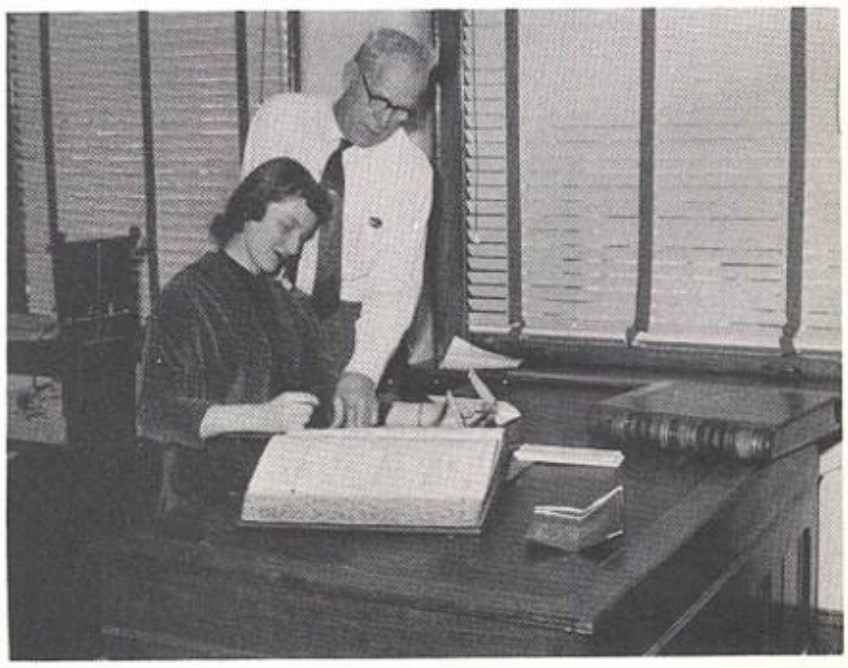
STUDENT GOV

After several weeks of campaigning and mock elections students of YHS took the oath of office in the eighth annual American Legion Student Government Day. The students spent the day in the offices to which they were elected; learning the ways of city and county government. Climaxing the day was a banquet at Legion Hall with guest speaker Governor Joe Foss.



Ken Stemler, County Coroner, finds ambulance work very interesting but also very serious. Cleo Lowe as Register of Deeds learns that hers is a big job that takes alot of time. Marlyce Munkvold is busy looking over the book that contains the courts activities.

ERNMENT DAY

Holding a mock city commissioners meeting with the city council are the student city commissioners and student city manager Hal Brost. Elected city commissioners are Kay Myers, Jack Coates, Nancy Weiger, Bill Van Epps, Hal Brost, City Manager; Jim Prouty, Bob Stewart. The student elect found their job very important and filled with many duties.

Elaine Finfrock, County Superintendent of Schools, and Elaine Nielson, Deputy Superintendent of Schools, find their job interesting as well as a busy one. Larry Osgood as Assistant Fire Chief learns that his job is an important one. Reid Pfefferle, Judge, is seen presiding over a mock court session.

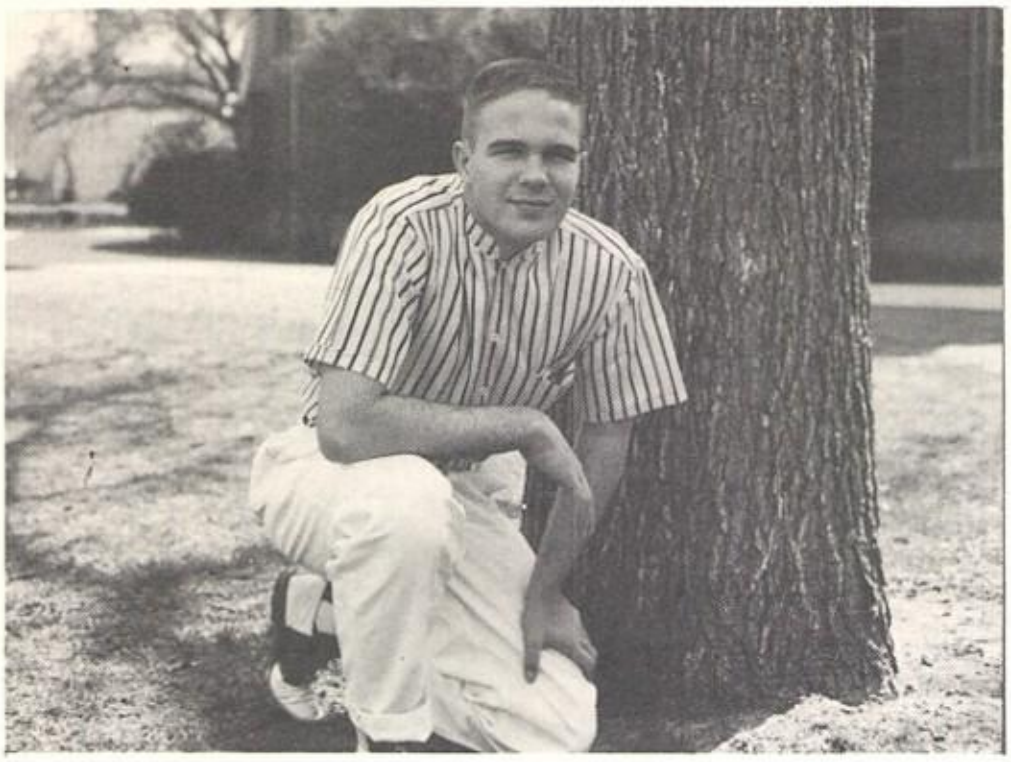
HONORS

Verna Lee Nitteberg proved herself a Miss Einstein when she took top honors in the state Batson Test given by the University of South Dakota. Lee also took first place in the State Science Talent Search and an honorable mention in the National Science Talent Search. From this picture it seems that Lee feels quite at home in a science lab as most girls would feel in the kitchen.

When it comes to the field of reporting it appears that girls excel the boys in that field. Shown here are Donna Johnson and Barbara Richardson. Donna wrote the top editorial that won the Freedom Foundation Award for YHS. Barbara received a first place in the state contest for one of her feature stories.

The 1956-1957 Arickara and Woksape will be headed by the following students: Pam Christopherson, Editor of Arickara; Wanda McKee, Business Manager of Woksape; Bonnie Hoover, Editor of Woksape; Jim Leach, Business Manager of Arickara.

HONORS



Yankton High School is very proud of a certain student by the name of Hal Brost. Hal was accepted into the second class of the Air Force Academy and also into West Point but he has made the Air Force Academy his choice. Hal was also elected to the 5th team of the Wigwam Wiseman All-American football team and the Prep Magazine All-American football team.

Eldon Eisenach of YHS was one of two boys from South Dakota chosen to attend Boys Nation at Washington D. C. Boys Nation is based on the same principles as Boys State.

Miss Diane Tincher was given the Daughter of the American Revolution good citizen award. They are chosen on scholastic rating as well as good citizenship.

As well as having the ability to write Donna Johnson also has the ability to speak. Donna took first place in the American Legion Oratory Contest.

MARDI GRAS

With their theme as "Disneyland" the Juniors put on a very successful Mardi Gras. Costumes ranged from Davy Crockett to Julius Ceasar. What a contrast!

Center it seems that Pam and Judy are having quite a time with their stand.

Right we have Robert Raney as the "Mad Hatter".

Look to your left and you will see quite a variety of characters. This is the picture of the Von Wickershams, a very aristocratic family, who added to the color of the Mardi Gras.

1956 GIRL STATERS

Yankton High School will be represented at Girls State this year by Donna Johnson and Pam Christopherson. Girl staters are chosen on several principles: leadership, character, health, courage, co-operativeness, honesty and scholarship. The girls will spend a week learning government fundamentals.

1956 BOY STATERS

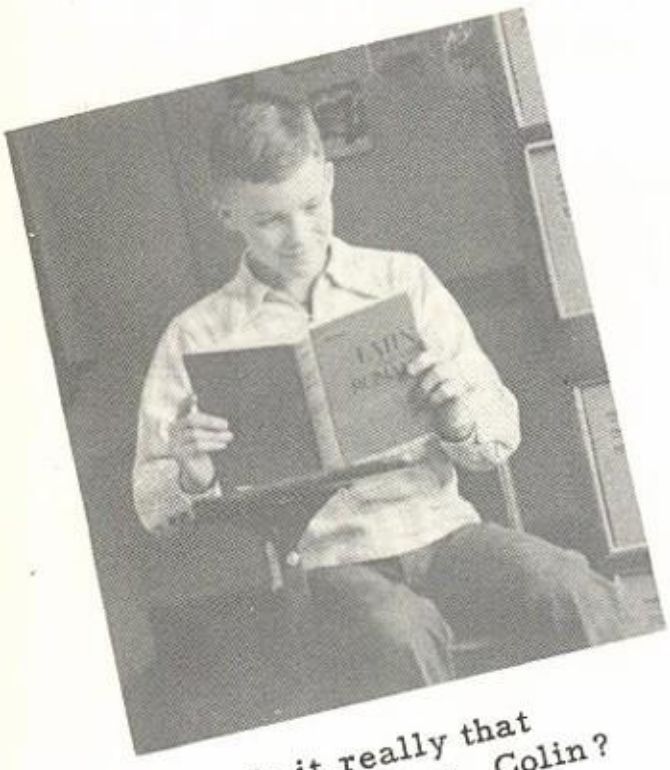
This year Yankton High School will send six boys to the annual Boys State at Aberdeen. The boys are being sponsored by several local civic groups. At Aberdeen they will spend a week learning how a democratic government should be set up and run. Standing from left to right are Dick Lucas, Dennis Krueger, Dick Snowden, Jerry Donohoe, John Hohn, Lynn Shoemaker.

CANDY

A menu of swiss steak and whipped potatoes after candy appetizers opened the 1956 banquet in the Lutheran Church. After dinner speeches by Mr. Candybar and the Candy Shop boss finished off the evening's program. Songs were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Palmer and Carol Lehman. The Church Banquet room carried out the candyland theme.

LAND

A candyland castle and trees sprouting candy suckers and peppermint sticks set the stage for the 1956 Junior-Senior Prom. Candy sweet music and dancing till twelve made the evening one long to be remembered. A candy tree terrace at the end of the floor was used for the serving of the punch. The Banquet and dancing and the gaiety and fun left a taste as sweet as candy in the minds of all who attended.

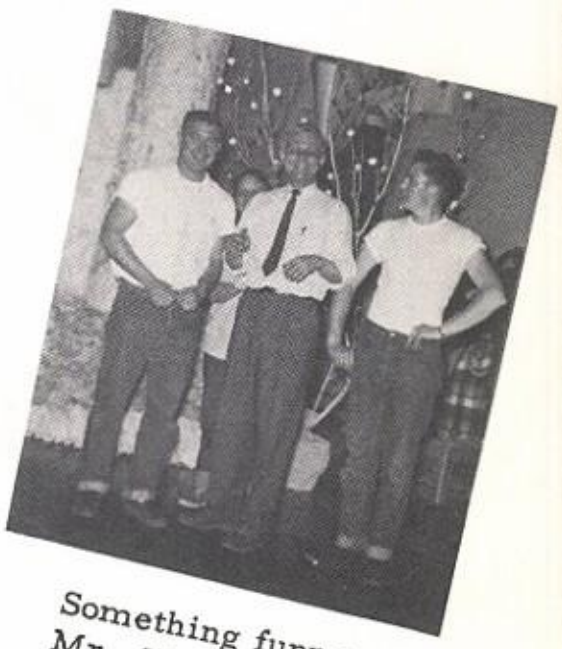


Is it really that interesting, Colin?

You cowpoke you!!!

Shot anybody yet, Mary A. ?

Real cards, these girls!!!!



Something funny, Mr. Lindboe??

Don't just stand there, Miss Schroeder!!

making this yearbook possible.

Princess Ree once again slips back into the supernatural as the spirit of YHS. She has led you through her experiences of the year 1955-56. The experiences she had were those of the students of YHS, she shared in the fun and the excitement, the victories and the heartbreaks. She walked across the stage at graduation and she too felt the tinglings and the joy of each graduate as he received his diploma.

As she bows out Princess Ree wishes good luck in the future to the graduating students and hopes that this book will always remind them of their years in "YANKTON HIGH".
